Town Officials Anticipate Heaviest Vote Here In Years

Voters Are Urged To Study Referenda Before They Vote

According to the town officials of Arlington, the heaviest vote in years is anticipated at the polls on November 2nd.

There are twenty-five hundred more voters registered here than in 1944, the last presidential voting year.

With 22,000 voters listed in the previous election, and with more than ninety-five per cent of the total number of voters coming out in 1944, the indications are that with 25,000 voters registered this year, the heaviest vote in recent years is practically in the bag.

According to Mr. Earl A. Ryder, town clerk, the intense desire of both Republicans and Democrats to get their candidates over the top, and with the international situation riding high in the minds to the selection of an architect, eight of whom have been person-

Editorial It Can Happen Here

"The hand that rocks the cradle rules the world" is a wise saying. We should remember it in voting on Referendum No. 4 or the Anti-Baby bill, on next Tuesday, November 2.

We, of an enlightened twentieth century, should heed its wisdom, while we have the chance. Because the Babylonians of 1000 years before Christ forgot it, they no longer rule.

Archaeologists found that birth control was the curse of Babylon. First there were NO BABIES. Then, NO BABY-LONIANS. And, finally NO BABYLON.

It can happen here. Right here in Massachusetts. The supporters of the Anti-Baby bill are doing their best to make it happen here under the guise of public health. They are trying to empty our bassinets by ballot boxes.

They imply that fewer babies mean better babies and healthier mothers. According to psychologists and psychiatrists, nothing could be further from the truth. Fewer babies often mean more spoiled children, problems for society. More babies usually mean more generous children and better adjusted adults.

Let's look at the record again. This time at the imposing record made by members of large families.

These writers whose literary works will live forever all came from families ranging from 6 to 12 children. Men like Walter Scott, Alfred Tennyson, J. Fenimore Cooper, Thomas Carlyle, Charles Dickens, and Washington Irving.

Enrico Caruso, whose glorious tenor voice thrilled thousands, was one of eighteen children.

Both of the composers, Wagner and Mozart, were one of six children, while Franz Schubert belonged to a family of thirteen.

Founders of democracy as we know it, framers of the Constitution of the United States, leaders of our nation in its early days, all these were born into families of from 6 to 16 children. Famed Benjamin Franklin, John Marshall, Daniel Webster, George Washington, Samuel Adams, Henry Clay and Thomas Jefferson.

Literature, music, government, all facets of our civilization. Just think what we would have lost if their mothers had denied the world those great sons!

As for "healthier mothers", we have the example of Mrs. Mahan. Mother of Harvard's immortal back, Eddie Mahan the thirteenth of her fifteen children, she lived to be 96 years old! According to her friends in Natick, she was active and jovial to the very end of her life in 1944.

Two more of Harvard's football greats from Natick were Billy Murray and Joe McGlone.

Murray's mother, who had seven sons one daughter, is still living. She is over eighty.

Mrs. McGlone, the mother of fourteen children, passed away in 1947 at the age of 83. You could name many wonderful mothers of large families in our town of Arlington who are happy and healthy.

These heroic women relied on the moral law, rooted in the very natures and hearts of every living being. This natural, moral law never changes. It is the same today as the beginning of time. It isn't like the New Look or the Newer Look, something you can change each year.

It will be the same next Tuesday as it was in 1942 when birth control was defeated at the polls.

Massachusetts stands now as always for decency and the sanctity of the home, the bulwark of democracy.

By your "NO" vote on Referendum No. 4 you will join the army of fearless men and women of the past, present, and future. You will plow under the Anti-Baby blight by your ballots on November 2.

Your vote against Referendum No. 4 and everything for which it stands is a vote in the public interest. Remember, it CAN happen here.

Arlington Housing Authority Authorized To Proceed With Vets' Housing Development

The Arlington Housing Authority has received from the State Housing Board qualified approval for its first veterans' housing development consisting of 74 garden type apartments. On September 22, 1948 the Arlington Housing Authority submitted Part I of an Application for Financial Assistance. The approval given by the State Housing Board includes the first site selected by the Arlington Housing Authority.

An application for authorization of a substantial number of additional veterans' housing units is in the process of preparation by the Arlington Housing Authority, and consideration is being given to the selection of land for the additional housing development. At its last two regular Monday meetings, the Arlington Housing Authority has been giving extended consideration

Priest Honored At Farewell Party

For the past three years, curate of St. Agnes church, Arlington, Rev. John J. Keohane, who under Archbishop Cushing's lend-lease program, of sending priests to various parts of the country, has been assigned to the diocese of Jacksonville, Florida, was given a farewell party at St. Agnes school auditorium on Sunday afternoon, by the parishioners of that church.

Rev. Keohane was presented with a brand new automobile for use in his new clerical duties through the south, and a substantial purse of money.

Much credit for the great success of this affair goes to Mr. James J. Golden, Jr., popular and able clerk of the Arlington Board of Selectmen, and Arlington's acting town mayor and his committee made up in such a short time, as well as to our next door neighbor, popular Dr. Francis H. Beaton who is to be commended for his untiring and capable efforts towards the success of this event.

November 2 - American Day

Tuesday, November 2, is a GREAT DAY for Americans. For thousands and thousands of our countrymen, it will mark their first chance to vote for a President of the United States. Many Arlingtonians will be included among those who will cast their first ballot in a national election.

Many more residents of our town fought for the privilege, however. And many of those who fought the best fight, won't be here Tuesday.

Yet some look at the privilege lightly. A bit of rain, a cold spell, an afternoon tea, or just the pressure of business, and they fail to appear.

Be sure YOU exercise YOUR rights and duties as an American next Tuesday. Vote whatever ticket you chose, and whatever candidates you may favor. But in the memory of the Americans who have lived and fought and died for FREEDOM, BE SURE TO VOTE.

Vote "Yes" For Licenses

We think it is about time that a 'YES' vote for package stores should be registered here in Arlington.

It is an established fact that thousands of dollars, thousands of Arlington dollars, go elsewhere for the purchase of wet goods, money that rightfully should stay here in Arlington.

Package stores have the reputation in other cities of being conducted on a high and business like basis.

Thousands of dollars annually in taxes are lost to Arlington-money that could be used to good advantage to help defray expenses.

A few feet over the Arlington-Medford line or over the Arlington-Cambridge line, or a phone call will instantly be the means of a truck bringing you all the wet goods you want.

Weekly, you notice liquor advertisements from the surrounding towns running in the local papers, soliciting business which rightfully should remain here in our town.

If we are going to spend money on package goods, let's spend it here in Arlington.

A 'YES' vote could bring that about.

DESOTO - PLYMOUTH SERVICE

Cites Urgent Need For Youth Leaders

Henry E. Keenan, Public Relations Chairman for Arlington Youth Council, Public Relations Chairman for Red Feather Community Fund Drive, District Chairman for Arlington Boy Scouts, spoke before the Parent Teacher's Groups at the Arlington Center Junior High School, Crosby and Cutter schools during the past week on the need for adult leadership to assure the continuance of youth programs in the town. He stated as follows:

The Arlington Youth Council is not an agency offering a program or youth; it promotes mutually helpful exchange of ideas and experiences among those agencies already at work. It aims to interpret the needs of the organized programs to the citizens of the town. We believe that the existing organizations offer an adequate breadth of program to accommodate the needs of our young people. But these agencies depend for their effectiveness on volunteer workers, and literally hundreds of the children of Arlington between the ages of 7 and 18 who acutely feel the need of some organized activity and have expressed a desire for it are denied the privilege because there are not enough leaders to take care of them. Some of the units of each of the presently organized agencies will have to close up this all and winter unless help is forthcoming, NOW.

Specifically, The Boy's Club has bowling alleys and hordes of boys who would use them if 20 men in the town would give up one afternoon or evening a month to supervise the playing; there are two groups of intermediate Girl Scouts (10-14) who have been active for several years who will not meet this year because there are no leaders for them. (One leader died, one moved out of town); one group of little girls has been waiting for two years to become Blue-Birds, soon they will have missed out on the whole program and will have to go on a waiting list for Camp-Fire age; even in areas where there are groups that are active there are long waiting lists in Camp-Fire, Girl-Scouts and Boy Scouts.

The situation is serious. We as parents and citizens demand adequate Youth Programs to prevent DILIGENCE and to meet the leisure-time needs of our modern social set-up. We contribute to the Red Feather Fund that underwrites such programs, but if we do not provide the volunteer man and woman power they will fail, and the blame will be with us. We want our Johnny and Susy to belong to these groups; we are relieved that they are occupied in socially acceptable activities under good supervision, but we expect some one else to do the supervising.

It is not necessary for you to do your share in the group that your children belong to, or even in your own part of the town. Offer your time and talent wherever it best fits. Work with the age group you happen to enjoy and understand. The parent of small children may enjoy evening groups of seniors; the parent whose children are older may regret that they have grown up so fast and get a thrill out of a group of giggling girls eight or nine years old, or in taking a den of cubs. The man who has only daughters might find a

A STATEMENT FROM REP. HALLAM T. RING

I do not believe that the citizens of Arlington will be deceived by the type of campaign being waged by my Democratic opponent. It is founded upon half truths and would only appeal to an electorate not well informed as to the limitations, obligations or responsibilities of a State Representative.
A Democrat criticizes a state highway when it was the Democrats who defeated the plan to make major improvements rapidly available!
... A picture is used of Alewife Brook that appears to be in the area that has recently been represented by a Democrat from Somerville.
It is stated that nothing has been done about the Brook when the fact is that I was responsible for getting the Arlington section included in a $65,000 dredging job only two years ago.
Gasoline tax estimates are used without stating that one third of the gas tax goes to the Federal government or that Arlington received more than $135,000 in cash from the state highway fund 1945 thru 1947 ... Failure to answer a few roll calls is construed as neglect of duties when they have no relation to attendance or legislative obligations ... It is implied that a single untired Democratic representative can obtain more cooperation than a ranking member of the majority party.
I have faith in Arlington and in the intelligence and integrity of its citizens. I stand ready at all times to assist my constituents either as individuals or as a municipality. I have always been available to discuss legislative matters with anyone who expressed an interest. As a State Representative working conscientiously for the broad interests of our community — I am prepared to STAND ON MY RECORD.

Life Story Of Paul A. Dever Presents Fascinating Record Of Many Fine Achievements

PAUL A. DEVER rose to leadership from humble origin and hardship.

His career in public service is an inspiring example of the blessings and opportunities of American democracy. Dever is one of the splendid company of self-made men who have helped to make America great.

Left fatherless at the age of eight, young Paul soon found odd jobs to help increase the funds for the support of his large family. At an early age he went to work at a factory bench in the Hood Rubber Company, working on the night shift from eleven o'clock at night to seven o'clock in the morning, attending school in the daytime.

Despite this rigorous routine, he managed to educate himself, and at length was admitted to the Bar after having been graduated from law school with the highest honors.

Elected to the Legislature in 1928, he fought vigorously in behalf of measures for the protection of the safety and health of workers in industry, or the establishment of a state fund for Workmen's Compensation, and for the protection from want of our aged citizens.

As Attorney General, Paul A. Dever consistently refused to play politics, either in the selection of his assistants, or in the performance of his official duties. As chief law enforcement officer of the state, Dever employed his powers to make his Department a greater instrument for public good than had any of his predecessors.

Dever will take prompt steps to protect the rights and requirements of his fellow veterans. He is pledged to the enactment of bills for veterans' housing, or the assistance of paraplegics, for veterans' preferences for Gold Star widows and mothers, and to prompt action in the erection of the Holyoke Hospital for the care and treatment of disabled veterans. In Paul A. Dever the veterans of Massachusetts will find a staunch and loyal champion.

BIRTH CONTROL IS STILL AGAINST GOD'S LAW!

The laws which Question No. 4 (the "anti-baby" law) would change have been upheld by unanimous decisions of the Massachusetts Supreme Court. Chief Justice Rugg said about these statutes in 1917: "Manifestly they are designed to promote the public morals and in a broad sense the public health and safety. Their plain purpose is to protect purity, to preserve chastity, to encourage to continence and self-restraint, to defend the sanctity of the home, and thus to engender in the State and nation a virile and virtuous race of men and women."

of all Americans, it is a foregone conclusion that both parties will leave no stones unturned to boost their candidates across the finishing line.

As already strongly stressed by churches, town officials, and newspapers, Mr. Ryder again brings the matter of the nine referenda appearing at the bottom of the ballots, to the attention of Arlington voters, strongly urging them to make a serious study of each referendum before going to the polls, and thus avoid last minute waste of time and consideration.

Moreover, voters are urged to go early to the polls on November 2nd, whenever possible, and thoroughly understand for what and for whom they are going to cast their ballots, so that the work of the ward executives may proceed as expeditiously as possible.

he has made countless friends as well as hundreds of satisfied customers who come from towns as far away as Lexington, Newton, Winchester and Belmont each week, for the sole purpose of trading with this famous establishment.

FOOD LANE has been accepted from its very opening day, as one of the most progressive and enterprising of the modern markets, until at the present time, it has built up a clientele prodigious proportions which does its family buying week after week and day after day, with the full assurance that when a drop in prices comes FOODLANE is the first to pass along the saving along to its customers without delay and right on the dot.

In order to show the deep appreciation of the MARKET from owner-manager down thru its entire personnel, FOODLANE is presenting this three day carnival and food jamboree with free food baskets, numerous demonstrations of famous products, and special gifts to each and every customer entering its doors on the three day celebration.

Mr. DeLuca sounds an encouraging note in the ears of worrying and distraught housewives to the effect that in his opinion within a few months, a drop in the current high prices is bound to occur, and that when the drop comes even slight though it may be his customers will be the first to receive the benefits thereof.

The management and entire personnel of the organization extend a most cordial invitation for the public to visit the Super Market during November 4, 5, and 6, and acquaint itself with the outstanding values to be found at the famous FOODLANE Market.

James E. Peoples Appointed Chairman Of Vets Committee

The Veterans' Committee that recently formed for the purpose of promoting the candidacy of Joseph F. McEvoy, Jr. or State Representative from the 25th Middlesex District has announced the appointment of James E. Peoples of 20 Amaden Street, Arlington as Chairman of the Arlington District.

The 25th Middlesex District includes Precincts 1, 3 and 5 in Arlington as well as Wards 6 and 7 in Somerville.

In accepting the appointment, Mr. Peoples, a World War II veteran and a former resident of Somerville, stated:

"One of the primary duties of good citizenship is that we take an active part in the affairs of our government. That requires a knowledge of the men who seek to represent us in that government so that we may vote in an intelligent manner for the candidates best qualified to serve us.

"Therefore, I am very happy to accept the Chairmanship of the Arlington District and work for the election of Joseph F. McEvoy, Jr., as our State Representative.

"His background as a successful practicing attorney, property owner, his years of public service, as an Alderman during the war years and his one term in the State Legislature afford us a wonderful opportunity to appraise him.

"Former Representative McEvoy's fine public record is not limited to veterans' Legislation where he always worked for and supported the rights of the veterans, but extended into all other fields and was praised by the press and public alike."

Fire Department Commended For Fine Work At Bayburn Fire

Many favorable comments are being heard about town in regard to the prompt and efficient manner in which the Arlington Fire Department, under Chief Richard J. Tierney, rendered valuable service at the recent Bayburn, Inc., fire at 1 Broadway, at the Somerville line, where the fur storage vault was damaged by fire to the extent of $150,000 to $200,000.

This was one of the most difficult of fires to reach, it being necessary to chop through about ten inches of reinforced concrete wall in order to gain access to the exact location of the fire and the heavy concentration of heat and smoke added to the difficulties of the men. Having no demolition equipment on hand for such an emergency, Chief Tierney called upon the Board of Public Works, who responded immediately with the necessary equipment to open up the roof and sidewalls to gain access to the fire.

Company B, 101st Engineers of Medford, also responded with their demolition unit, standing by to assist if necessary.

The residents of the neighborhood lent a helping hand by furnishing the boys coffee and doughnuts and the Red Cross Arlington Unit were also promptly on the scene in their usually efficient manner

Commuters From Here Delayed

Inbound trains on the Lexington branch of the Boston and Maine railroad were delayed from ten minutes to an hour on Thursday when a side rod on the engine of the first train to Boston from Bedford broke at the Lake street station. The rain was held up for an hour. Later trains were also delayed about ten minutes, so that hundreds of commuters were late getting to work in Boston.

Cong. Edith Nourse Rogers Holds Very Envyable Record

Honorable Edith Nourse Rogers as a candidate for re-election to Congress in this district has a wonderful record of accomplishment especially in the last Congress. Seniority is a strong governing factor and Congressman Rogers' record and long years of active constructive service on the Civil Service Committee Foreign Affairs, Veterans' Affairs and other committees is of major importance. At the beginning of the present session, she received without any opposition the chairmanship of the Veterans Affairs Committee of twenty-seven members. Cong.
